	Officers were dispatched to 2131 S Weinbach Ave in regards to a person with a gun. Upon arriving the OF was gone. She had left in a gold buick. I spoke with the Victim. She told me that the OF has legal custody of her nephew (IO3). IO3's (nephew) biological mother is the sister of the Victim. The OF is wanting the biological mother (IO2) to take custody back of the child but she is refusing. This has been an ongoing issue for several months and has started to involve extended family members of the child being victimized by the OF, in an attempt to get someone to take the child. Today the OF showed up at the Victim's work threatening her verbally. This took place inside the store, the OF had IO2 (OF's sister) with her. When the OF went outside she got into her buick, then stepped out of the vehicle and pointed a gun at the Victim, who was standing at the entrance of the business. The OF then got back into the vehicle and pulled off. The Victim was obviously upset and shaken from the incident and said she was in fear for her safety. She was given the case number advised on getting a Protective Order and following through with charges of Intimidation.

Reported: 12/13/2022.	GREEN, R. E.
		Officers were dispatched to 800 Bayard Park Dr for a traffic accident. The caller stated that a pickup had overturned. Before I arrived the caller advised the driver had climbed out of the truck. Once EFD arrived on scene they found that the driver had fled the scene. I spoke with a witness who stated the driver was a white male in his thirties who was tall and skinny. At first he said the driver was wearing a blue sweatshirt but after he got a better look at it he thinks it was black and white. It appeared the truck had been going West on Bayard Park and hit a parked car that was parked on the South side of the street across from 810 Bayard Park. This vehicle was unoccupied and the owner was working inside 810. TriState Towing was called and turned the truck back over before loading it up and taking it to TriState Towing. A hold was placed on it for HRU. The owner of the parked car was given a case number. His vehicle was not towed and was left parked on the street.
