		Harrison, Renee Lynn (B F, 36) VICTIM of Criminal Recklessness W/deadly Weapon (C), at 1021 Bayard Park Dr, Evansville, IN, between 14:05, 12/25/2022 and 14:12, 12/25/2022. Reported: 12/25/2022.
		Officers were dispatched in reference to a family dispute. Dispatch advised that the RP stated a man named Joshua assaulted a female subject and left in her car. Dispatch also advised that the subject hit and dragged a juvenile male in the street with his a vehicle.
		Officers arrived and found the reporter along with the victims. One of the female victim's was the subject's long term girlfriend of over two years. She stated that the subject lived at the house with her and her children. The victim stated that her, her children, and her boyfriend were about to go to a family friends house for Christmas. The victim stated that the subject had been drinking and he wanted to drive to the friends house, which is located in Boonville, IN, when he was already on the way to pick them up.
		The victim said she took the keys to the car and was keeping them so the subject would not be able to drive. She said this angered the subject and he grabbed her hand trying to get the keys and pulled her to the ground. While on the ground the subject kicked the victim in the stomach with his foot causing her a tremendous amount of pain. The subject fled out the front door and got into the drivers seat of the car which was pulled into the driveway. The driveway and road in front of the house was covered in snow and very slick.
		The victim, her juvenile son, and juvenile daughter all went outside to prevent the subject from leaving. The victim stated that the drivers side door to the vehicle was opened and she was standing right outside the door attempting to get the keys from her boyfriend. Her daughter was standing next to her behind the open drivers door as well. Her son went to the passenger side of the car and was reaching in the open passenger door attempting to get the keys. The subject started the vehicle and put the car in reverse. He started backing up almost running over the victim, along with her juvenile son and daughter. The family friend arrived when the subject was

LW 2225509	running outside to the vehicle and said he witnessed the altercation at the car. The friend started yelling at the subject when he was backing up because he had pulled his car right behind the subject's vehicle in the driveway. The subject then stopped reversing, not because he was almost running over his girlfriend and her children but so he did not hit the friend's vehicle behind him. The victim said that when the subject started backing the vehicle up she had to jump out of the way, pulling her daughter with her to prevent from being hit by the car. The victim's son was still on the passenger side of the vehicle. He was not able to jump out of the way but held on while the subject traveled in reverse so that he did not fall out of the vehicle. The subject then put the vehicle in drive and stomped on the gas spinning out on the snow/ice. He drove through the yard and onto the street to get away from the house. The victim's son was hanging on while he hung out of the passengers side door until he was able to get out without getting run over. The family friend stated that he observed the subject peel out in the driveway and take off onto Bayard Park Drive. He said that the male subject was hanging out of the passengers side door while he drove off. The victim's son stated that while he was leaning in the passengers side door he was struck in the face by the subject prior to him driving off with him. The subject was observed driving the vehicle described by the victims and witnesses by a Vanderburgh County Deputy and stopped. It was found the the subject is currently on probation for being convicted of multiple counts of battery on public safety officials. The subject was taken into custody and transported to the VCCC for multiple charges.		SCOTT, C.
