Reported: 01/09/2023. No victims listed. A male without an identification came to EPD Headquarters but EPD was able to verify his identity. The male had a copy of a $28,007.50 check from 08/18/2018. The male advised he was in a half-way house in Colorado when a wealthy relative passed away, several years prior. The wealthy relative allegedly owned real estate and a business in Henderson, KY. The male advised he was named in the estate as an heir. The male said his mother took his check from the inheritance and forged her name to the check while in either Ft. Myers Florida or Henderson, Kentucky. The male states his mother stole $28,007.50 in total from him. Nothing related to this incident occurred in Evansville or Vanderburgh County. The male stated he is living on the streets of Evansville because of the good services provided in Evansville. The male requested assistance from EPD to recover his stolen money. EPD FCU briefly investigated and contacted the realty company in Henderson. The realty company advised that there is some validity to the males troubles but agreed it has nothing to do with Evansville or the state of Indiana. EPD FCU attempted to point the transiet male to get a civil attorney in Henderson or possibly the Henderson police department. The male said he would look into this further in Henderson but does not want to pay an attorney for any services. No further report or investigation by EPD will be done in reference to this matter.
