LW 2301504	Burglary	Fulks, Jason Duane (W M, 42) VICTIM of Burglary (C), at 2613 S Saint James Blvd, Evansville, IN, between 12:00, 01/19/2023 and 23:00, 01/19/2023. Reported: 01/24/2023. Tot.Est.Loss: $450. I was dispatched to 2613 S Saint James Blvd in reference to a theft report. I arrived and spoke with the alleged victims, Natalee Fairchild and Jason Fulks. Fairchild and Fulks said that they had relationship problems a few days ago which resulted in Fulks obtaining a protection order against Fairchild and kicking her out of the house. EPD day shift officers were on scene for a standby there on 01/19/2023. Fulks said he had since dropped the protection order and Fairchild moved back in. Fulks said sometime while Fairchild had been staying elsewhere and while he was at work, he believes their neighbor entered his unlocked front door and stole a table lamp out of the living room and $400 out of Fairchild's nightstand drawer. He said there was also a bag full of Fairchild's underwear and clothing packed up and left in the hallway where it hadn't been previously. I spoke with the listed suspect at her house. She admitted to having the lamp, but said Fulks had given it to her. The suspect showed me extensive Facebook Messenger messages (and noted audio calls) between her and Fulks, the majority of which appeared to be from the afternoon/evening of 01/19/2023 and after. In one of the messages, Fulks offered to exchange the lamp for a "bj." In another message, Fulks is venting to the suspect about how he found Fairchild in bed with another man in his house. The suspect explained to me that Fulks had walked in and found Fairchild in bed with "a black man," which apparently prompted their most recent relationship issues. The suspect said Fulks wanted to buy a security camera for her to put in her window so he could spy on Fairchild from the suspect's house. There were messages where links to security cameras were exchanged. The suspect said after Fairchild left the house, Fulks packed up all of Fairchild's things in trashbags and brought a lot of it over to her house. The suspect said she went over to Fulks' house and took the lamp with his permission before he walked her and the lamp back across the street to her house. The suspect said her hairdresser and 14 y/o daughter were at her house and witnessed this	HACKWORTH, N.

The suspect refused to return the lamp when I asked her because she said it was a gift and she doesn't appreciate Fulks lying about the situation. The suspect said Fulks just became upset with her because she wouldn't have sex with him while he and Fairchild were separated. I confronted Fulks with the Facebook messages, but he denied giving the suspect the lamp, denied packing Fairchild's things up and taking them to the suspect's house, and both Fulks and Fairchild denied that another man had been in the house who could have potentially stolen the money out of Fairchild's nightstand. Fulks and Fairchild demanded a case number, which they were given.	Penn, Cornelia P.
