WEAVER FILING FOR FOURTH COUNCIL TERM

EVANSVILLE – City Council Jonathan Weaver (R-At Large) is planning to file with his family for his fourth term on Evansville City Council on Tuesday, January 31 at 3:30 p.m.

“I am so excited to continue serving the residents of Evansville and beyond”, Weaver says. “I’ve gotten a lot of satisfaction taking calls and helping constituents on a daily basis.”

Currently, Weaver is in his third term as City Councilperson. He was elected in 2011 after serving four years as Vanderburgh County Assessor.

“The accomplishments over the past 12 years have been exciting and rewarding”, says Weaver. “I want to continue the work that needs to be with the new Mayor of Evansville.

Jonathan came to Evansville in February 2000 to work for News25 WEHT-TV as their broadcast meteorologist. He earned his real estate license in 2003 and is currently helping people buy and sell homes in Indiana and Kentucky at FC Tucker Emge and Collier REALTORS. Jonathan is immensely involved in the community coaching his sons’ teams with Evansville Youth Soccer, Evansville Youth Baseball, and the Catholic School’s Tiger Cub Basketball; as well as numerous boards past and present such as Land Bank Corporation, Commission on Homelessness, Evansville African-American Museum, and Regional Economic Ambassador.

Councilman Jonathan Weaver, wife Brittany, and three children; William (16), Benjamin (8), and Jonathan, Jr. (6) currently reside in Lincolnshire.
