	Miles contacted us in reference to a residential break-in report. We arrived and spoke to Miles. She said she has lived in her apartment for several months and her door has never latched. She has asked the Hampton Court property manager numerous times to fix her door. She stated they just laugh it off. On several occasions she believes people have been in her apartment. She set up a camera and has caught people on her camera entering her apartment. She hasn't found anything missing as of yet. Today she came home and checked her camera. It showed the property manager entering her apartment. She said she is supposed to have 24 hrs notice before they can enter. We checked the door and the lock did fail every time. Aurora is helping her with her apartment. She advised us the property manager told them today they would put a new door in on Monday. Miles said her refrigerator hasn't worked right since she got the apartment. They have failed to provide her with a new refrigerator. We gave Miles the case report number.
