On 02/12/2023, at around 04:24, I was dispatched to 1511 Taylor Ave, in reference to a domestic violence in progress.	AGHASARYAN,
		The offender had fled the scene, before my arrival. I made contact with the victim outside of the residence. The victim stated that the offender had assaulted her in front of her daughter, the IO, and fled the scene once he saw police car getting close to the residence.
		Once we were inside the residence, the victim, stated that the offender and she have been in romantic relationship for about a year. The victim stated that they had been drinking earlier that night, and they got into a verbal argument, downstairs, in the living room area. The victim stated that while she was sitting on the couch, the offender was poking/pushing her head with his finger, and was trying to provoke he, but she did not react and went upstairs to her bedroom, and took a shower. The victim stated that later she came downstairs, and saw the offender in the kitchen, partially slumped over on the chair, so she told him that he needed to leave, and she was willing to give him a ride. The victim stated that the offender got irate and agitated, grabbed her by her throat, and pushed her onto the wall, and choked her to the point that she was about to faint and could not breath. The victim stated that she was able to break from his grip, and she run upstairs to her bedroom and called 911 for help. While she was on her bed, the offender grabbed her by her throat again, but she was able to push him away with her legs. The victim stated that the offender grabbed hold of one of her legs, and dragged her off of the bed, and she fell on the ground and hit her head on the metal side of the bed, and caused her pain. The victim stated that the IO had heard her screaming, so she run upstairs, and witnessed the offender tearing and damaging her property. Bedroom was a mess, and all the victim's personal belonging that were on the dresser where on the floor. The victim stated that later when the IO and she where downstairs, the offender attempted to hit and punch her with the bag that he had in his hand, but she was able to run away and dodged them, and it was all committed in presence of the IO.
		Later I talked to IO, and got his account of the incident.
		I was able to observe slight redness in the right upper neck area of the victim, and the right lower knee area. I used my body worn camera, and took pictures of the injuries.
		The victim was checked out by AMR, but was not transported.
