	I was dispatched to Saint Vincent ER, 3700 Washington Ave, in reference to a battery report. I arrived and spoke with the victim, Charles Perrin, in room 16.
	Perrin said on 02/17/2023 at about 0200, he was sleeping at 312 E Tennessee St where he sometimes stays (he is homeless) when the offender used a flashlight stun gun on his foot to wake him up. Perrin said he woke up and verbally confronted the offender about the stun gun. Perrin said the offender told him it was none of his business. Perrin and the offender then got in a verbal argument, during which the offender began insulting Perrin's sister who was not on scene. Perrin said he began defending his sister and told "Bosse" (Clarence Johnson Jr - one of the residents here) that he better "take care of" the offender because he didn't want to get in trouble for battering the offender. Perrin said the offender threatened to hit him with brass knuckles, but Perrin told the offender he didn't believe him.
	Perrin said about an hour elapsed, at which point Johnson left. Perrin said once Johnson left, the offender took the brass knuckles and punched him at least twice in the head with them. One of the hits was to the upper, right cheek and the other was more to the top of the head. Perrin said after he was struck on the top of the head, he lost consciousness. Perrin said he woke up an unknown amount of time later, saw that the offender was no longer at the residence, and went back to sleep.
