	stroke in Pike County. The reporter says his sister has cared for his father more than he has during the health problems. The father was able to speak but has had limited mobility in Pike County. The reporter says a few weeks ago his father was briefly hospitalized in Henderson and Jasper prior to being moved to Evansville. Since the father is at Riverbend Nursing, applications for various forms of government aid have been started during the past two (2) weeks. The reporter states it was found that there have been many suspect expenditures on the victim's accounts. The expenditures were prior to the past two (2) weeks. The withdrawals and expenditures were while the father lived in Pike County. An example was several hundred dollar withdrawals at an ATM in French Lick and utility bills in Pike County. The reporter believes that while his father lived in Pike County that his sister has spent a a lot of his father's money. The reporter says his father gets $2,500 a month in income and believes his sister is spending the money on herself rather than their father. EPD FCU did not travel to the alleged victim or call the alleged victim (reporter's father) and ask if he consented to this or not. It is not clear if the victim will remain in Evansville or return home after being cared for at Riverbend Nursing. A miscellaneous incident report was taken at this time. At this time of the report there is no crime noted in Evansville. Since the father has just been temporarily in Evansville for two (2) weeks the reporter was advised the proper jurisdiction would be Pike County for any prior theft investigation or fraud investigation. The reporter was advised to consider seeking an attorney to discuss obtaining Power of Attorney or estate issues of his father. The victim was advised that the police department handles crime and will assist him if there are criminal issues while the father is in Evansville. The reporter was also told that the police department does not get involved in family estate planning or family estate civil disputes. If fraud or theft occurs on the fathers accounts while he is in Evansville a new case could be opened. The reporter has the contact information to EPD FCU in the event there is a crime in Evansville related to his father's assets. This misc. incident report has been emailed to the reporter as non-criminal at this time. The victim has been given the number to Adult Protective Services and Vanderburgh County Legal Aid. Sgt. Arbaugh Evansville Police Department Financial Crimes Unit. [03/30/2023 13:53, WARBAUGH, 1650, EPD]
