LW 2308223 Controlled Substance- Possess Cocaine Or Narcotic Drug	Society VICTIM of Controlled Substance- Possess Cocaine Or Narcotic Drug (C), at 799 Se Eighth St/e Chandler Ave, Evansville, IN, on 04/30/2023, 22:30. Reported: 05/01/2023. Officers were on patrol in a marked patrol vehicle when they observed a green passenger car make a turn without using a turn signal. A vehicle stop was initiated at SE Eighth St/Chandler St. The driver was operating without proof of insurance, and was found to have a bag of marijuana in her possession. The driver was placed in handcuffs and advised of her Miranda Rights to which she stated she understood. The driver stated that there was a small plastic bag in the vehicle that may have some Cocaine residue inside it. Multiple small baggies and plastic straws were located in the vehicle. All of these items later tested positive for the presence of Cocaine with a Cocaine test wipe. The driver also had her juvenile child less than eight years of age in the vehicle during the stop. The driver was arrested and transported to the VCCC for multiple charges. The child's father was called to the scene to take custody.	ROSENTHAL, J. B.
LW 2308225 Controlled Substance- Possession Marijuana/hash Oil/hashish/	Society VICTIM of Controlled Substance- Possession Marijuana/hash Oil/hashish/ (C), at 199 E Olmstead Ave/n Heidelbach Ave, Evansville, IN, between 23:00, 04/30/2023 and 23:47, 04/30/2023. Reported: 05/01/2023. Officers were in full uniform on regular patrol; driving a marked police vehicle. Officers were at the intersection of Olmstead and N Elsas, when they observed a truck stopped in the roadway on the curve of Olmstead and Heidelbach (facing east). Officers observed a vehicle come around the corner, heading east, have to stop their vehicle to avoid hitting the back of the truck that was still stopped in the roadway. The vehicle then had to go around the stopped truck. The truck began to roll forward, when officers observed the truck not have his taillights on (2341 hours). Officers got behind the vehicle and activated their emergency lights conducting a traffic stop at Olmstead and Elliot. Officers observed the vehicle drive up on a curb and park. Officers approached the vehicle and spoke to the driver. Officers observed the driver to have droopy, glossy eyes. Officers asked the driver if he knew why he was being pulled over, he stated no. Officers informed him he did not have any taillights. The driver with slow slurred speech stated the truck was a rental. The driver then informed officers that both his GPS on his phone and in the vehicle were malfunctioning. Officers asked the driver for his license and insurance. After some time and the driver asking officers what they needed a second time, the driver handed officers the appropriate information. Officers collected the information and walked back to their police vehicle. Officers ran the driver through both Indiana and Illinois DMV, along with RMS. Officers received a return that the driver had a warrant out of Vanderburgh County. Officers confirmed the warrant with EPD records and returned back to the truck. Once at the truck, officers had the driver step out of the vehicle. Officers observed	FAHSE, A. G.

LW 2308226	the driver stagger from the vehicle. The driver was patted down for weapons and then asked if he would consent to Field Sobriety Tests (SFSTs). While leaning against the vehicle for support, the driver still with slurred speech denied SFSTs. Officers placed the driver in handcuffs. The driver began to raise his voice and become verbally aggressive, stating he did not understand why he was going to jail. Officers explained he had an active warrant. The driver continued to raise his voice and was asked again to lower his voice. He did for a brief time, later raising it again. Officers walked him back to their patrol vehicle and searched the driver incident to arrest. During the search, officers located a green plastic tube on the driver's person. Inside the tube were two brown rolled papers with a green leafy substance. The odor of marijuana was present. The 2 grams of brown paper and green leafy substance later tested positive for THC using NARK II test kit 05. Officers read the driver Miranda and began to ask him questions about where he was coming from and how much he had to drink or what else he ingested (odor of alcohol was present on the driver's breath). The driver avoided the questions about what he ingested. The driver did inform officers he was in town for graduation of a family member and that his car was broke down in another city. The wagon arrived on scene and the driver was researched and placed in the back. The truck was later inventoried and towed by Tri-State Towing with an EPD admin fee. Once at VCCC, officers read the driver Implied Consent once at VCCC. The driver interrupted officers twice while they were reading it. Officers took the driver into the intoxilyzer room and he was again read Implied Consent by a certified intox operator. He denied the chemical test. The male became verbally aggressive again with officers and would not follow directions. Officers placed the driver in the restraint chair due to his escalating behavior. The driver was later booked in on multiple charges and continued to cause issues with the jail staff.	Society VICTIM of Controlled Substance- Possess Methamphetamine (C), at 2702 N Heidelberg Ave, Evansville, IN, between 01:24, 05/01/2023 and 01:25, 05/01/2023. Officers arrived and located a house where a male and female subject could be heard arguing very loudly from out in the driveway. Officers knocked on the door and a male subject answered the door. The male was apparently very angry and asked what the officers wanted. Officers advised the subject that there was a call and yelling could be heard from outside the house. The male stated everything was fine before slamming the door back closed. Officers knocked again and the door opened again. There was a female subject inside that appeared to be in distress, but did not want officers help. The strong odor of marijuana was rolling out of the front door when the door was opened. There was an infant that could be heard crying inside the residence. Neither the male or female subject wanted to speak to police, or provide any information. One of the responding officers knew the subject's identity who came to the door. The subject was a known DV Felony candidate. A chins report was created.		ROSENTHAL, J. B.
