Public Administration- Resisting Law Enforcement	On the listed date, the victim called for officers reference the offender being on her property and appeared to be impaired. The victim said she called St. Vincent's Security, who confirmed the offender was a recent patient who had been discharged. I, Officer Hastings, located the offender on the victim's property by a side door and advised her that she would have to leave. The offender was confrontational, but I gave her space as she was asking in order for her to walk away. The offender left the property momentarily, but then returned as I was standing by my patrol car. I observed the offender pull a landscaping light from the victim's property and began carrying it east on Washington Ave. I attempted to stop the offender and ordered her to drop the light. The offender refused and began walking west on Washington Ave away from me. I gave her several more commands as I closed the distance between us and the offender continued to refuse and began walking faster. As I got closer, the offender dropped the light, turned away and began to run. The offender began to lose her balance and I pushed her to the ground. Officer Lowe arrived on scene to assist. Officer Lowe and I had to use the necessary force to secure the offender in handcuffs. Once secured, the transport wagon arrived and the offender was transported the Vanderburgh Co Confinement Center without further incident. The offender was housed on the listed charges.
