Reported: 05/17/2023. Officers were dispatched to a family dispute in the 1200blk of Read Street. Dispatch advised the victim and offender, Jeremy Miller, were screaming at each other. The victim reported Miller grabbing her by the hair and threatened to beat her physically while in the alley. Officers arrived and spoke with the victim. The victim stated she and the offender lived together, and were currently in a relationship. The victim stated the argument started because the offender wanted to look through her Facebook Messenger app and see if other males were messaging her. The victim stated Miller took her phone and stated if he finds anything he "will beat her ass." The victim stated she knew Miller would find messages he would not like so she tried to leave stating she believed he would carry out the threat to physically hurt her. The victim had a complaint of pain from Miller pulling her by the hair and dragging her down the street. The victim stated Miller had taken her purse from her during the altercation. Officers observed the victims shirt on her back side was wet. The victim showed officers minor scrapes and red marks on her back. Officers observed minor scrapes/red marks on her lower left back just above the hip and multiple small scrapes/red marks on the right side of her back. Officers read the offender the Miranda Rights Warning to which he stated he understood. Miller denied any physical contact or verbal threats being made. Miller confirmed a fight regarding Facebook Messenger was the cause of this incident. Miller confirmed he did take possession of the victim's cell phone attempting to find messages from other males. Miller has a previous unrelated battery conviction, making this and any following battery incident a felony. Miller was transported to the Vanderburgh County Confinement Center and booked on the above listed charge.		CARPENTER, B.
