	On the listed date, the victim advised she had just left the Evansville Diamond Federal Credit Union on Washington Ave after making a deposit. The victim said she drove to the Dollar General Store at 2250 E Morgan Ave and stated she still had her wallet with her. The victim entered the store around 13:44hrs. The victim had been shopping in the store for over 5hrs when she realized her wallet was missing from her purse. The victim said she notified management in an attempted to have them review the security cameras. The victim said management had done so, but advised her that they did not see anyone around her cart throughout the time she was in the store. I watched a short portion of the video with the manager(involved other) and saw one moment where the victim went into the hardware area without her cart. I advised the victim of this and she could recall that moment, but was unsure if her wallet was taken then or later. The manager was asked how long video footage was stored and she stated for one month. I provided a case number to the victim and advised her to secure her accounts if possible. I also advised her if she were to be notified that her cards were being used that she needed to write down the date, time and location where it took place.

Officers arrived and discovered that there was some kind of dispute between a boyfriend and girlfriend here. Both parties stated that there was some sort of physical altercation, but kept changing their story as to what that altercation exactly was. Neither party had any injuries, nor wanted to press any type of charges. The girlfriend did break a window to the apartment at one point, but has been living here for 8 months. The girlfriend agreed to grab all of her belongings and leave the apartment. Both parties were given a case number and advised to call with any further issues.	HARDIN, G. L.
