LW 2312024	Theft	Society VICTIM of Weapon/instrument Of Violence- Child In Possession Of Firearm (C), at 15 Nw Martin Luther King Jr Blvd, Evansville, IN, on 05/15/2023, 19:14. Reported: 06/22/2023. While investigating a separate report, photos of the juvenile offender were located showing the juvenile in possession of firearms. Conoco, N First Ave (M, 93) VICTIM of Theft (C), at 1121 N First Ave, Evansville, IN, between 17:25, 06/22/2023 and 17:45, 06/22/2023. Reported: 06/22/2023. Tot.Est.Loss: $3. I, Officer Frazier, was dispatched to the listed address (Conoco Gas Station) for a theft in progress. Dispatch stated a white female with a hat, blue backpack, and white/black pants was stealing from the store. She was last seen walking eastbound on Louisiana St. A few moments later she returned to the store, was attempting to take more items, and refusing to leave. I arrived at the gas station and located the offender standing at the front counter. She stated she was going to wait for officers to arrive. I asked her to step outside, with assisting officers, so I could speak with the reporting party. She exited the store with K9 Officers D. Murray and J. Reidford. The reporting party is a clerk at the Conoco gas station. He stated the offender entered the store and grabbed a package of Blistex Medicated Chapstick. She was tightly rolling it in her hand and he could hear the packaging opening up. She walked out of the store, past all points of sale, and walked eastbound around the store. He followed her for a short time and could see her travel down the street past several houses. He gave the description and direction of travel to dispatch, then he returned to the store. She entered the store, again, a few moments later. The chapstick cost $2.13 and was the only item he stated the offender took. I searched the offender's name in RMS and saw a bar/ban alert for the listed address (1121 N First Ave/Conoco Gas Station). She was trespassed by officers on May 4, 2023. You could see, in plain view, through a clear pocket in her backpack a clear baggie. The baggie, through my training and experience, appeared to have narcotics in it. I searched the backpack, incident to arrest, and was able to determine the clear baggie contained a crystalline substance. The crystalline substance was tested at VCCC with a Nark II Methamphetamine test kit. It tested positive for methamphetamine. The substance was weighted on a digital scale. It weighed 0.5 grams. The offender was transported to VCCC and booked on the listed charges.	FRAZIER, R. T.

LW 2312035 Domestic Battery-w/prior Unrelated Conviction(s)	Officers were dispatched to a narcotics complaint. Officers located narcotics inside the residence. Mosby, Johnna Marie (W F, 35) VICTIM of Domestic Battery-w/prior Unrelated Conviction(s) (C), at 2512 W Maryland St, Evansville, IN, between 21:40, 06/22/2023 and 21:50, 06/22/2023. Reported: 06/22/2023. I, Officer Frazier, was dispatched to the listed address for a domestic violence in progress. Dispatch stated a white male with no shirt just pushed a female at a house. The female was described as a white female wearing a white shirt. The reporting party was afraid she might have hit her head. They stated they were on Maryland St across from the school and there was a Buick parked in front of the house. Officers, based off the information given on the run card, were able to determine the address. I knocked on the front door and made contact with the offender. I asked him if he would step outside so I could attempt to make contact with the other involved party. He agreed to step outside and I entered the home. Immediately to my right was a female, matching the description given, sitting on her bed. She was clearly distraught and on the phone with her son's father. I identified the female as the victim. Her conversation was on speaker phone and at a volume I could hear the other male party. He told her that he was going to arrange a ride for their shared son (juvenile involved other). He told her he was removing the child because he did not need to be around the physicality. I found the juvenile involved other and told him he needed to pack some things. I asked the juvenile if he saw the victim and offender get physical. He stated he did not see anything physical, but knew they were arguing. The juvenile exited the car prior to the alledged domestic battery. I spoke with the victim in her living room. She stated the offender and her got into an argument over old relationships. The offender, victim, juvenile involved other, and infant returned to the listed residence after a baseball game. The juvenile exited the vehicle and went inside the house. The victim exited the vehicle and walked up to the front door. She stated the offender yelled at her about forgetting the infant in the car. He had the infant, in it's carseat, and was walking up to the house. The victim stated the offender bumped her with his elbow (arm holding the carseat) and she fell to the ground. It was about that time I noticed an abrasion/cut on her left elbow. I asked her how she obtained the cut and she stated from her fall. She stated she believed it was an accident and in their 4 year relationship it has never been physical before. I documented her injury on my BodyWorn camera. I spoke to the offender on the front porch of the residence. He stated they were arguing over past relationships. They returned to the residence and he mentioned		FRAZIER, R. T.

LW 2311975 Missing Adult	grabbing the infant out of the car. He made the statement to the victim about grabbing the infant and she turned around to take the infant from him. She fell as she was turning around/going backwards and landed on the ground in front of the porch steps. He said they were arguing very loudly, but it never got physical. I was alerted by Deputy Botzum that he had a witness to the altercation. She was across the street and the ride for the juvenile involved other. I spoke with the witness across the street from the residence. She is the juvenile involved other's "step-mom". She was at the same baseball game that the offender and victim were at. She noticed something was off with the victim and was concerned. The witness, when the game was over, was dropped off at her car. She was a few houses to the east, and across the street, of the listed residence. She stated she watched the offender and victim exit the car at the same time and go toward the house. She saw the offender push the victim to the ground and was concerned for her safety. She described the push as very violent. I, after this new information was presented, placed the offender in handcuffs and transported him to VCCC. The offender has a prior conviction for battery from 2013.		MILLER, J. M.
