Reported: 06/23/2023.  Officers were dispatched to Kennedy Towers reference a narcotics complaint. The reporter was the property manager, and she wanted the police with her reference narcotic and firearm complaints about a specific room. Officers along with the property manager made contact with the lease holder of the apartment at the apartment. The lease owner stated he had multiple people in his residence that did not live there. He also told us he was having trouble getting them out of his apartment. We then assisted with removing 5 people from the residence. We found that one of the involved had several felony warrants and she was placed into custody without incident. We also found the listed offender, who refused to identify herself even after officers asked several times. The offender also refused to leave when asked several times. Once outside the offender continued to refuse to identify herself, and began causing a scene in the entry way of the building. Officers continuously asked the offender for her name, but she refused and proceeded to cross the street while not using a cross walk and not at a 90 degree angle. Officers followed her across the street and again asked her for her name and she again refused. Officers began trying to place the offender under arrest. She began physically resisting this. A use of force then occurred to place the offender into custody. While waiting for a supervisor due to the use of force, the offender continuously screamed profanities at an uninvolved male, even when she was told to keep her voice down. After the supervisor arrived and interviewed the offender, she was placed in a squad car and transported to jail.		HASSLER, J. H.

Reported: 06/24/2023.		CHRISTIAN, D. C.

Officers were called to a disorderly conduct. It was discovered that the female was trespassing. She refused to leave and was arrested.

Officers were dispatched to the listed address in reference to a person with a gun. Central Dispatch advised the first caller (witness 1) called in stating she and the offender arrived at the listed address and the victim was inside the residence. Witness 1 was calling to advise the victim has a protective order against the offender and did not believe the victim was supposed to be at the residence.

Central Dispatch received a 911 call from the victim who stated the offender arrived with a gun and threatened the victim. Officers arrived and spoke with all involved parties.

Officers read the offender her Miranda Rights which she stated she understood. The offender stated she lives at the address and arrived here today to find that the victim was here. The offender stated she believed the victim (offender's spouse) no longer lived her due to a previous domestic incident, but had a feeling the victim would be at the residence due to her observing a light on inside the residence. The offender stated she opened the front door and was met by the victim who took her phone and grabbed her hand. The offender stated she exited the residence and called 911. The offender stated she does own a gun, but leaves it in the trunk of witness 1's vehicle. The offender gave officers permission to retrieve the firearm from the vehicle. The offender is Brady Disqualified due to an active protection order against her.

The witness stated as she and the offender were walking to the front door of the listed address, the offender notified her that she observed a light on inside the residence. The witness stated the offender advised her she believed the victim was inside the residence because the offender knew she had turned all the lights off prior to leaving earlier in the day.

The victim stated she was at her home (the listed address) when the offender entered. The victim stated the offender had possession of her cell phone. The victim stated she took a cell phone from the offender. The victim stated the offender pointed a black full size handgun at her head and stated she would kill her.

Officers were dispatched to a disorderly conduct located at 1531 S Green River Rd, Ricks Sports Bar. While en route, dispatch stated over the radio a black male wearing a blue flannel made claims to shoot someone. Officers arrived in the area and located a subject that fit the description yelling near 4620 Covert Ave, Liquor Locker. On scene officers conducted a pat down of the individual, later identified as David Hodges, and located a glass smoking device on his person. David was taken into custody without incident at that time. David was read Miranda Warning before being questioned.

On scene officers noticed David sweating profusely and his pupils were dilated.

LW 2312098	David also began to have muscle spasms and made statements of feeling "flighty." Officers called for AMR to transport David to a hospital to receive medical attention. David was cited and released to AMR for treatment. David took a fighting stance by blading his body and putting his arms out in front of him with his fists balled up when taken out of handcuffs. David was placed back into handcuffs. While in handcuffs, David began to tense his arms and pull away from officers. Force was used to affect arrest. While waiting on a Sgt to arrive on scene, David grabbed one of the on scene officers duty weapon. When asked why did he grab the officers duty weapon David stated "hell yeah I did." David began to yell and he was asked to stop but he did not. While yelling, patrons from Liquor Locker began to come outside and look in the area where David was actively yelling. David began to kick officers and caused one of the on scene officers to scrap his left knee leaving a visible injury. David was transported to VCCC for booking.		AGHASARYAN,
