Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
	While we were travelling eastbound on Washington Ave getting ready to pass Blackford Ave, Officer Rosenthal observed a male walking northbound on Blackford Ave in the middle of the street while the sidewalk was available. Due to the above male, the offender, being in the area of the possible shots fired, I proceeded to make a U-turn and we made contact with him on the north side of the New Horizon Fellowship Church. While talking to the offender, we observed that the offender had a bulge in his back under his jacket. Officer Rosenthal proceeded to conduct a pat down for weapons, and asked the offender if he could search him. The offender agreed. During the search of the offender's person, Officer Rosenthal found a glass container with a green plant like substance out of the offender's backpack, which he was carrying underneath of his jacket. It was immediately apparent to Officer Rosenthal that the plant like substance was marijuana due to his officer experience and training. Officer Rosenthal also found a blue pill wrapped in a plastic wrapper out of the offender's front left jacket pocket. After placing the offender in handcuffs, he read him his Miranda Warning and the offender stated that he understood his rights and continued to talk to him The offender admitted that the plant like substance was Marijuana and was his, and he is a user. He also admitted ownership of the blue pill, and stated that it might have been OXI, and he needed it because he was stressed lately. I used drugs.com and identified the blue pill with V 2531 imprint as Clonazepam, schedule 4 drug, prescription only. The offender was cited and released at the scene. Later, at west sector office I used Narc 2, narcotics test kit and tested the plant like substance and it was positive for THC, field weight of 1.2 grams.

LW 2310979 Battery Inj/against Pregnant Female	Sutton, Makenna Kay (W F, 21) VICTIM of Battery Inj/against Pregnant Female (C), at 1001 Mary St, Evansville, IN, between 14:24, 06/08/2023 and 14:46, 06/08/2023. Reported: 06/08/2023. Officers were dispatched to 1001 N Mary St., known as Aurora, in reference to a battery that had occurred. Upon arrival, officers located the victim, who stated that her former roommate had entered the business and slapped her in the face multiple times. The victim also stated that she was pregnant, and that the OF was aware of this. Multiple witnesses on scene corroborated this story. The victim provided a current address and stated that the OF had fled there when witnesses removed her from the premises. She then stated that she had received threatening messages from the OF as well. Officers arrived and set up a perimeter around the address that the victim had provided to officers. Officers made contact with two males inside the residence, who claimed that the OF was not home, though conflicting information was given. The homeowner gave consent to clear the home for other people, and a K9 Officer arrived to clear the home. The K9 located and apprehended the OF in an upstairs closet. A tourniquet was applied to the left arm of the OF after the K9 apprehension and AMR was called to the scene. After being read Miranda, the OF admitted to slapping the victim twice in the face, as well as being aware that the victim was pregnant. OF was transported to Deaconess Midtown for medical attention prior to Vanderburgh County Correctional Facility.		TURPIN, Z. D.
