Cocaine Or Narcotic Drug	Officers were dispatched to the Goodwill at 1820 N First Ave in reference to a person down parking in the parking lot. Officers arrived and found Kirstie Jacobs passed out in a vehicle directly in front of the establishment. Jacobs appeared to be under the influence of narcotics. Officers removed Jacobs from the vehicle and asked her for consent to search the vehicle. Jacobs denied consent to search the vehicle stating that it was not her van. Jacobs` drivers status was then ran through the Indiana BMV. The BMV returned that Jacobs did not have a valid drivers license and had not had one for a lengthy period of time. Jacobs concurred that she knew her license was suspended but thought she had a "hardship" license. A hardship license does not cover going to the goodwill and or the use of narcotics on the 4th of July. Jacobs stated that her license was to cover taking her children to school and going to work amongst various other things. It was determined that there were other issues with the vehicle as well as the registration. Jacobs was not able to tell officers when her boyfriend Brandon Brummett had purchased the van. The plates on the vehicle returned to Brummett but to a different vehicle and not a Toyota mini van. It was determined that Jacobs would go to jail for her suspended license. Before towing the vehicle an inventory was done on the contents of the vehicle. During the inventory numerous narcotics related items as well as narcotics were located. Jacobs stated that the items were not hers and that she was just tired from various life events. Methamphetamine, marijuana, multiple scales, a glass pipe, and a powdery substance that tested positive for heroin and fentanyl was located inside of the vehicle.
