Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 2313910	The RP called into Records to report their trash can had been stolen. The RP stated the can was there prior to trash pick up then gone once trash had been picked up. The RP stated the company should put a sticker on the can requesting the home owner contact the company to request a new can but the driver of the truck did not place a sticker on their can. The RP knew the can needed replaced as the RP would see the driver get out of the truck to dump the can because the can was missing a bar required for the truck to pick up the can. The RP stated the driver must have been tired of getting out of the truck and just took the can. The RP would have called for a new can if the driver would have put a sticker on the can. Or since the driver knows the can needs to be replaced the driver keeps a log of cans that needs to be replaced and turns the log in and then the company is pro-active and takes care of their cans. The RP was provided a case number.		VALADEZ, D. K.

LW 2313918 Incident Rpt Misc	Incident Rpt Misc (C), at 1 Se Ninth St, Evansville, IN, between 09:30, 07/20/2023 and 09:50, 07/20/2023. Reported: 07/20/2023. No victims listed. Dan Simon called 911 on July 20, 2023, to report an incident that occurred at Danks & Danks Law Firm involving attorney Scott Danks and one of their clients, who at this time is unidentified. Earlier that morning, Simon went to Danks & Danks to speak to his son's attorney; Andrew Pittman. His son hired Pittman to represent him in a custody battle. Simon said that his son is an alcoholic and has no chance of getting custody of his boy, but Pittman represented him and he lost the court case. Danks & Danks sent him a $1100 bill for their services. Simon believed that this bill triggered his son, who is unemployed, to drink, which put him in the hospital. Simon said that he went to the law firm to ask that they no longer represent his son because as long as he has a drinking problem and is unemployed, no judge is going to give him custody. Simon said that he has no idea how his son came up with the $400 retainer to hire an attorney in the first place. Simon said as he was talking to Pittman, Scott Danks came in and interrupted the conversation and said, "Your son is an adult!" He said, "Get out of my office!" At that time, one of Danks' clients, an unidentified white male in his late forties (goateed and salt and pepper hair) said to Simon, "I'll kick your ass!" Simon		SMITH, S. L.
