LW 2313071 Robbery	Parkland Ave, in reference to a found firearm and ammunition. Officers arrived and took possession of the firearm and placed it into evidence at EPD Headquarters. Harris, Jacqueline Meisha (B F, 37) VICTIM of Robbery (C), at 1104 N Fulton Ave, Evansville, IN, between 20:25, 07/07/2023 and 20:35, 07/07/2023. Reported: 07/07/2023. Tot.Est.Loss: $30. I, Officer Frazier, was dispatched to the listed address (Dollar General) for a shoplifter. Dispatch stated there was a white female, in a pink shirt and blue jeans, inside the store stealing. Her purse was full of merchandise. I arrived at the store and made contact with victim 1. She is an employee with Dollar General on Fulton Ave. She stated the offender (unknown at the time) was placing merchandise inside her purse and she could see her doing it. The offender, a few moments later, approached the cash register with items in her arms. Victim 1 told the offender to place all the items on the counter, including the ones in her purse, and leave the store. The offender placed some items on the counter, but she believed there to be more in the bag. Victim 1 was standing in the doorway, of the front entrance, with her back facing the inside of the store. The offender shoved her, in the back, and exited the store. The offender fell as a result of the push. Victim 1 stated the offender tried to trip her as she (victim) came back into the store. Victim 1 received a minor cut to the left side of her chin. I asked her what she believed the offender had left with in her purse. She stated feminine products, perfume, dishwasher liquid, soda, and some nails. She did not know what else. I watched security footage of the altercation. You can clearly see the offender push the victim as she exits the store. There was 2 males with her, but both males had exited the store before the altercation. Victim 1 showed me a picture of the license plate on the vehicle the offender was in. The license plate was in the back window of the truck and you could see the offender in the passenger seat. We were able to determine the address of involved other 1. Victim 1 was given a case number and advised if the female returned to call 911. K9 Officer Murray located the above listed truck a few houses south of involved other 1's house. I, with the assistance of Officers Murray, Farmer, and Shahine, made contact with the residents of the aforementioned house. Involved other 1 opened the front door and we asked him to step outside. I asked him if he knew why we were there. He stated he thought it might have to do with the dollar store. I asked him for a name. He told me the name of the offender and involved other 2. I asked him if they were inside his residence. He stated they were not and he gave us permission to search. They were not located inside the residence. I exited the house and Officer Farmer gave me another address. Officers drove to the other address. I, along with assisting officers, walked up to the other address. The front door opened before I could knock on it and a female exited the residence. I asked the female what her name was and she gave it. I was able to identify the offender as the female I saw in the security footage at Dollar General. She was placed into handcuffs and read her Miranda Warning. Lisa clarified her husband was Involved other 2. I asked the offender if the items, from Dollar General, were still in the house and she stated she took them all out at the store. She stated that she just couldn't afford the items and she is currently homeless. The offender was transported to VCCC and booked on the listed charge.		FRAZIER, R. T.
