Criminal Mischief	The victim recently moved into this residence and is allowed to live here currently. The suspect has lived in the residence, with the owner of the house, within the past 30 days and still has personal items in the residence. The tablet listed in the property has an active sim card and the IMEI number is attached in the description. I spoke with the property owner of this location several weeks ago, explaining to her that she either needs to file a protective order or an eviction noticed and have the suspect served, otherwise with his personal belongings still being in the residence, it does not help our case for anything else than a simple theft. She once again advised that she will file paperwork this week.		CULVER, R. Q.
