On 08-30-2023, officers were dispatched to a disorderly conduct involving a mother and a bus driver at 2013 S Green River Rd. Officers arrived and spoke with the reporter. The reporter told officers that a student's mother had reported her daughter's bus driver for being disrespectful. The mother had called the school and told the reporter that she was coming over there to talk to the bus driver, but was advised to not come to the school and let the corporation handle it. The reporter stated the mother still showed up and got onto the bus driver's bus and started arguing with her before leaving. Officers spoke with the bus driver, who stated that the mother was arguing with her because she felt that the driver had disrespected her daughter. The driver told officers that she had called for the student to get off at her stop, but that the child did not come forward. The driver let off another student at a stop and the student got off there and walked home. The bus driver explained that the mother felt like she had yelled at her daughter, which is why she reported her. The staff at the school requested an official police report and a case number was granted.		REISINGER, L. R.

Reported: 08/30/2023. On the listed date, I, Officer Hastings, was parked on the lot of Creekside Baptist Church enforcing the speed zone for Oak Hill Rd. I observed a black passenger car traveling north on Oak Hill at a very high rate of speed and I activated the mounted Bee III Directional Radar System. The unit showed the suspect vehicle traveling 96mph in the posted 35mph zone. I pulled off the lot and activated my emergency lights and began attempting to catch up with the vehicle. I observed several vehicles that had passed prior to the suspect vehicle and noticed I was still not catching up to the suspect vehicle. Which gave me concern that the suspect vehicle had passed these vehicles in a no passing zone on hills and curves. I eventually observed the suspect vehicle turn onto Oaklyn Dr. The suspect vehicle was still driving face and recklessly as it turned off of Oaklyn onto Yale Dr. I was eventually able to catch up with the suspect vehicle(IN 967VAW, 2018 black Toyota Camry) as it turned into the driveway of 3217 Yale Dr and came to a stop.
