Vehicle While Intoxicated- Endang	On 08/26/2023 around 0307 hours, Officers were on routine patrol in a fully marked police vehicle during heavy rains driving eastbound on Riverside Dr from Kentucky Ave. We observed a white Ford F-150 driving westbound on Riverside Dr with heavy front-end damage dragging a large tree limb from the undercarriage. We initiated a traffic stop on the vehicle due to the reasonable suspicion it had been involved in a hit and run. We approached the vehicle and came into contact with the driver and sole occupant. Due to our training and experience, we recognized the odor of an alcoholic beverage emanating from the driver's breath. The driver stated he had been driving when a tree fell on top of his vehicle. When asked why he left the scene of the crash, the driver stated he just wanted to get home. A half empty alcoholic beverage with an alcohol by volume of 5.8% was located in the center console cupholder of the vehicle. Central Dispatch advised prior to our traffic stop, they had received a call to report a tree had fallen on a white truck and the occupant could not get out. The caller advised the vehicle left the scene westbound on Covert Ave prior to the arrival of the Evansville Fire Department. The driver submitted to a portable breathalyzer test upon which he registered a reading of 0.186. The driver's vehicle was released in his driveway. The driver was transported to Deaconess Midtown Hospital for jail medical clearance which he was granted. The driver was transported to the Vanderburgh County Confinement Center where he was booked and processed for operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated.

We were able to tie the damages to the garage with the listed vehicle. A short time later involved other 2 showed up. She is part owner of the house. She was able to get involved other 1 to answer the door. Officers spoke to involved other 1 at his front door. He appeared to be intoxicated and kept stating he was not stepping outside. He told officers multiple times he knew his rights. We advised him this was not a criminal issue and it was more of a safety issue. I asked him if he knew why we were there and he stated someone hit his garage. I asked him if they were driving his van and told him that we had proof is was hit with his vehicle. He gave little information and stated he was not intoxicated, he was just tired. Involved other 1, after several minutes of conversation, stepped outside and let the fire department do their investigation. A few moments later the building inspector arrived and inspected the apartment. He informed all parties that involved other 1 did not need to stay in the apartment tonight, but would be allowed tomorrow when a support beam was put in place. Reported: 08/26/2023. On the listed date, the involved other, M. Williams, called stating she observed a female, later identified as the offender, laying in the roadway. Williams stated she observed a truck pull onto Read St from Franklin St, nearly running the offender over. Williams stated the offender didn`t move and when a second truck pulled onto Read St., Williams stated that truck had to avoid the offender, but stopped and told the offender to get out of the road. Williams said when the offender stood up and began to walk away she was stumbling and appeared to be under the influence. Williams described the offender as a white female wearing shorts and a blue tank top. I, Officer M. Hastings, arrived in the area and observed the offender sitting on a parking bumper on the Southwest corner of the intersection. Upon talking to the offender, I observed she was agitated. I asked the offender if she was all right and she stated she was fine. I asked why she was laying on the roadway and she stated her back was hurting so she decided to lay down. I asked the offender for an identification card so that I could show I made contact with her. The offender refused to provide said information. I advised the offender she needed to remain on scene until I could identify her due to the danger she had put herself in and I was going to have Williams return to explain what she observed. The offender was advised she was not free to go due to the investigation. At the time, the offender was still sitting on the curb and was not in handcuffs. As I walked back to my patrol car, the offender quickly stood up and attempted to walk away. I stopped the offender and advised her to put her bag and drink back on the ground. The offender was forcefully tried to pull away and refused to comply. I continued to give verbal commands while holding onto her wrist. The offender eventually put her bag and drink down. I tried to put her in handcuffs, but the offender pulled her arms toward her chest and would not release them. I asked the offender again to sit down and the offender tried to pull away which led to us falling to ground.
