Reported: 08/13/2023. On the 12 day of August 2023, Officers were dispatched approximately 23:51 hours to 315 SE Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd (Kennedy Towers) for a general complaint. Upon Officers arrival, central dispatched advised Mariah Ricer texted 911 stating "his bike in the laundry room". Officers spoke with Ricer and she stated that the male`s bike was in her bathroom in her apartment. Officers advised to Ricer that her complaints don`t obtain public safety assistance or emergency services. Ricer also believes that Richard Barns is on this location and thinks he is following her. I, Officer Z. Henderson and Officer M. Taylor has made sveral runs in the last month to this similar run. I Officer Z. Henderson contacted central dispatch to see how many times Ricer has contacted 911. Dispatched advised she has called in 45 times in the past month for false general complaints. Due to the past runs with Ricer she has been diagnosed multiple times with different mental health problems. Ricer also believes that Barns went to her location and stole her gun. Officer M. Taylor advised Ricer that the gun she is referring to is being held by the courts due to her lack of mental stability. Approximately thirty minutes prior Officer M. Taylor responded to Mariah Ricer about the similar complaint. Officer M. Taylor stated that if you contact 911 again for this similar complaint you will be arrested for Unlawful Use of 911 Services. Ricer was booked in the Vanderburgh County Jail for the above charges.		HENDERSON, Z.
