	Officers were dispatched to a family dispute.
	Upon arrival, officers spoke to the reporter. She stated she was attempting to stop her daughter from driving off because she was intoxicated. Officers observed the daughter`s vehicle parked in the middle of the street fifty feet or so away from the intersection of Irvington and Broadway.
	The odor of alcohol was present as the daughter spoke. Her behavior was verbally aggressive and she had a hard time following directions. The daughter was asked and she submitted to field sobriety tests (SFSTs). She failed all three tests. The daughter then submitted to a portable breathalyzer and blew a .186. She was read Implied Consent and Miranda. She stated she understood both. The daughter admitted to taking two to four shots of liquor. She stated she got into her vehicle and attempted to park it on the street after taking the shots earlier in the night. Her mother then attempted to stop her from driving because she thought the daughter was too intoxicated to drive.
	The daughter was transported to VCCC where she submitted to a certified chemical test. She blew .210 grams of alcohol per210 liters of breath. Prior to being booked in Correction Officers at VCCC located two pills (inside a pill bottle) that were not what was prescribed to the daughter. These were mixed in with her prescription for TIZANIDINE. They were later identified as Alprazolam (prescription only). The daughter was booked in on multiple charges.
