Reported: 09/04/2023. Officers were dispatched to the listed address in reference to a domestic violence in progress. Dispatched advised the victim stated that the offender arrived in a vehicle pushed him and then left and that he is disabled. Officers arrived on scene and spoke with the victim. The victim stated that he and the offender are acquaintances and have known each other for a while and hangout on a regular basis. He stated that today he received a call from the offender and she was upset and yelling at him. He stated he hungup on the offender due to her yelling, but showed officers that he received multiple calls after that from the offender. The victim stated shortly after this he heard a knock on the door and it was a different friend. The victim stated he opened the door for that friend and let them in and went to shut the door, but that the offender then pushed the door open and came inside yelling. The offender stated he and the victim began arguing, but then the offender pushed him down onto the couch. The victim stated the victim then grabbed a door stop that he uses to brace his door so that no one kicks his door in and held it up and stated that they should hit him with it. The victim stated he then pulled out his knife and opened it, but then put it away and called 911. The victim stated the offender then left the apartment and got in her vehicle and left. The victim stated that he felt pain when he was pushed down due to having a bad knee that requires him to use a cane to walk. While on scene officers spoke with the neighbor who stated they witnessed the events. The witness stated that she has known the victim for approximately 3 years and has been neighbors and that the offender is her sister. The witness stated that the offender was upset because recently the victim has been talking bad about the offender and has been getting upset when they reject his sexual advances. The witness stated that the offender came over and knocked on the door and did not push it in. She stated the offender confronted the victim about what he has been saying and he denied it and just laughed. The witness stated that this upset the offender and she began yelling at the victim but that things never got physical and then the offender left. The victim had no visible injuries and stated that his pillows on his couch were messed up to show officers that he was pushed. Officers provided the victim with a case number and told him he should just stay away from the offender and file for a protective order.		BROWN, S. A.
