	Officers were dispatched to Sportsman`s Billards (2315 W Franklin Street) in reference to an assault in progress. Central Dispatch advised two employees had been battered. The reporter advised the suspects left in a silver four wheel pickup northbound on St. Joseph Ave. Officers located a silver dually pickup truck nearing the intersection of St. Joseph Ave and Diamond Ave. Officers conducted a vehicle stop at this intersection. Officers approached the driver side door. Officers advised the reason for the stop as this vehicle matched the suspect vehicle description given after an assault had occurred. The driver refused to cooperate and identify himself. Officers located two other occupants in the vehicle, both of which displayed fresh abrasions that were actively bleeding. Officers attempted to inquire the circumstances of the passengers injuries, however the driver continued to be uncooperative and obstructed the investigation. Officers requested the driver to identify himself several times but were refused. Officers ordered the driver to exit the vehicle. The driver refused officers lawful commands and did not exit. Officers opened the driver side door and again ordered the driver to exit on his own, again met with refusal. The driver made quick suspicious movements by reaching with his right hand to the right side of his hip. The driver pulled his cell phone out of his pocket. Officers removed the driver, later identified as Jacob Tyler Day, using the necessary amount of force to effect the arrest. Once Day was properly secured in handcuffs, all forced ceased. Officers questioned the passengers who advised they had been in a fight with each other at a bar but would not answer any other questions or give any further detail about the incident. The passengers refused AMR assistance. The original caller from Sportsman`s advised that the male subjects were in a fight amongst themselves, then confronted the employee believing he was mocking them in some way. The Sportsman`s employee stated one of the males swung at him and indicated he was partially struck but did not want to pursue charges. The passengers were released from the traffic stop. The vehicle was towed to Tri-State Towing. Jacob Tyler Day was transported to the Vanderburgh County Confinement Center and booked on the above listed charges.
