Reported: 09/07/2023. On 09/07/2023, Officers were dispatched to 200 S Frederick St Apt D in reference to a report of suspicious circumstances. Public Safety at the University of Evansville advised a white male wearing a white shirt and blue ski mask was attempting to break into the listed address. Public Safety advised they confronted the male and he fled on foot northbound. Officers arrived in the area and began to search for the described male. Another reporter in the 200 block of south Lincoln Park Dr advised Central Dispatch she had observed a white male on a green bike in front of her address. The second reporter advised the bike the male was riding appeared to be a bicycle which was stolen from her son approximately one week prior. Officers arrived in the 200 block of south Lincoln Park Dr and observed the described male on a bicycle. The officer exited his vehicle, announced his police presence, and commanded the male to stop. The male disregarded the officer's lawful order, left his bicycle, and fled on foot eastbound jumping a nearby fence before the officer lost sight of the male. Officers established a perimeter in the area. The male attempted to vault a fence in the area, alerting officers to his presence. The offender was confronted and attempted to flee a second time. After a brief use of force, the offender was detained in doublelocked handcuffs. The offender's person was search incident to arrest. Officers located a broken glass pipe with burnt residue and a green leafy substance in the offender's left pocket. Due to my training and experience, I immediately recognized the green leafy substance as marijuana. Due to my training and experience, I immediately recognized the broken glass pipe with residue was used to introduce a controlled substance into the body. The offender stated he was overdosing and requested an ambulance. The offender was transported to Deaconess Midtown hospital for jail medical clearance. The offender's name and date of birth were entered in to the National Crime Information Center database upon which it was discovered the offender had an active misdemeanor warrant out of Vanderburgh County. After interviewing both reporters, it was determined the offender did not gain entry at the original address. The offender was transported to the Vanderburgh County Confinement Center		PAPE, N.
