Reported: 10/15/2023. Officers on patrol in a fully marked Evansville Police Department Squad Car observed a blue Mitsubishi Eclipse bearing Indiana Registration 420ZXZ. Officers checked the registration status through the BMV which showed the registration plate belonged to a red 1972 Cadillac. Officers conducted a traffic stop at the Sunaco Gas Station at Heidelbach Ave and Louisiana Street. Officers approached the sole occupant and requested his drivers license and proof of insurance. The driver handed to officers an Indiana Operators License that clearly did not match the driver. Officers asked the driver his name to which he stated "Doug." Officers asked the driver for his date of birth which he stated "03/26/1959." Officers observed the date of birth listed on the given Operators License was 02/10/1962. Officers ordered the driver out of the vehicle and secured him properly in handcuffs. Officers read the Miranda Rights Warning to the offender to which he stated he understood. Officers asked the offender why he gave a false name to which he stated "I didn't. I wasn't going to. I just had that in my pocket and I pulled it out. I was just messin` with ya cause I figured you knew who I was. You guys just pulled me over the other night in the car because the plate and everything." The offender identified as Ronald E. Ward Jr. Ward stated his real ID was in his wallet. While answering Central Dispatch on the radio, Ward made statements he knew his license may show Suspended. Ward stated he was suspended approximately twenty years ago. Ward admitted to having changed/corrected the registration plates yet, stating "I was getting ready to do that Monday." Officers returned to the squad car to check Ward's driving status through the BMV which showed him as a Habitual Traffic Violator - Life on a Regular ID Card. Officers requested Tri-State Towing to respond. Officers later determined Ward has a previous conviction for Operating a Motor Vehicle after Forfeiture-Life on 07/14/2015. Officers also determined the original false ID that was given belonged to a subject who had passed away in 2019. Ward was transported to the Vanderburgh County Confinement Center and booked on the above listed charges. | | CARPENTER, B. |
