The unlisted juvenile child was giving dad (victim) a hard time and being very disrespectful. The victim told his child he was not going to disrespect him. Words were shared and the offender got upset with the victim. The victim stated he was just going to leave. He turned around to walk away and the offender began hitting him. The victim had a red mark on the right side of his neck that appeared to be a hand print. The red mark was documented by Officer Farmer`s body cam. The victim stated several children were outside when the assault occurred, but he knows that the two listed witnesses saw the whole thing. The witnesses are both juveniles under the age of 16. The victim was given a case number and advised how to pursue charges. The victim and offender were previously in a relationship and have 3 shared children. The offender left on foot and was not located at the time of this report. The victim called 911, a few hours later, requesting to speak with officers. The offender was calling and harassing the victim by calling his mother`s phone. She was making threats against the victim. The offender made a threat that if the victim stepped outside something bad would happen. The victim stated the offender was going to make defaming statements about him on Facebook, but at this point she had not made the posts yet. | | FRAZIER, R. T. |

Reported: 10/17/2023. | AKER, B. W. |
| | | Officers were dispatched to 401 NW Riverside Dr in reference to a Criminal Mischief in Progress. The caller stated her scooters were being destroyed and described four individuals who were with the scooters, three males and one female. | |
| | | Once officers arrived it was determined that two Segway Max electronic scooters were damaged, both with an individual value of $1,100. The victim, R. Weaver, stated she was the owner of the scooter company Joy Punks and she was driving on Riverside Dr when she observed the four individuals around the scooters. Weaver stated two white males, both in dark hoodies were causing the damage to the scooters. The other male was described as wearing a lighter color hoodie and checkered pants, while the female was described as wearing a pink hoodie with dark hair and had a dark skin complexion. | |
| | | Officers made contact with the male wearing the checkered pants, involved other # 1 R. Brown, and he stated he stated he was with a subject named "Will" and that he did not do anything to the scooters. Brown stated the group arrived in the area in a white Charger, but he did not know where it was parked. Brown`s information was taken and he was released. Officers were also able to locate and make contact | |

| | with the female, involved other # 2 K. Taylor. Taylor denied any involvement with the incident and claimed to be walking at the river front by herself. Taylor's information was taken and she was released. Officers then made contact with two other males in the Mickeys Kingdom parking lot while looking into a black Dodge Charge that was parked there and believed to possibly be the charger Brown was speaking of due to its unoccupied status and close proximity to the location of the incident. While officers were waiting at the vehicle for a tow truck due to the vehicle being illegally parked, two males approached from the greenway. The males were identified as the two possible suspects, T. Carlile and W. Bergwitz. Bergwitz stated the vehicle was his parents, which matched with the vehicles registered owners. Both Carlile and Bergwitz were not forthcoming with officers initially, but later admitted to "fucking with" the scooters prior to Weaver pulling up and scarring them off. The two denied damaging the scooters the way officers described the damage to both scooters. Due to alcoholic beverages being present inside the vehicle, the parents of Carlile and Bergwitz were contacted and arrived on scene to retrieve the vehicle. Weaver was provided with a case number and a report was completed. | | |
