LW 2321293 Public Order- Disorderly Conduct	Public Order- Disorderly Conduct (C), at 2131 W Franklin St, Evansville, IN, between 23:00, 10/28/2023 and 23:01, 10/28/2023. Reported: 10/29/2023. No victims listed. On 10/28/2023 officers were on scene at 2131 W Franklin St when an individual, who had been thrown out of the business multiple times, pushed her way into the business. The individual was tackled by security and officers attempted to place the female into custody. While attempting to place the female into custody she pulled her arms away and officers had to pull them behind her back so she could be placed into custody. Once in custody the female began to yell and continued to do so after being told to stop.		LOWE, C. W.
LW 2321291 Controlled Substance- Possess Methamphetamine	Society VICTIM of Controlled Substance- Possess Methamphetamine (C), at 421 Nw Riverside Dr, Evansville, IN, between 22:24, 10/28/2023 and 23:10, 10/28/2023. Reported: 10/29/2023. On 10/28/2023, Officers were dispatched to 421 NW Riverside Dr (Bally`s Casino) in reference to a report of a subject refusing to leave. The reporter, security at the casino, advised a white female was refusing to leave and had done so the previous night as well. While enroute, the reporter requested an ambulance stating the female was possibly having a seizure. We arrived and observed the female on a bench. The female would not respond initially. The female began to yell she was having a seizure. I observed the female`s clothing was soaking wet as if she had been sitting outside in the rain. AMR arrived on scene. The female was unresponsive to medical staff. The female was transported to Deaconess Midtown for a crisis intervention due to her possible medical event, her inability to gain medical attention, and her shivering due to sitting outside in the rain and cold. While at the hospital, staff began to change the female into a hospital gown prior to treatment. An offduty officer observed a plastic container containing 2.5 pills and cotton as well as a folded receipt fall from the female`s bra during changing. The receipt contained a small clear plastic baggie containing a white crystalline substance. Due to my training and experience I identified the white crystalline substance as methamphetamine. The female`s handbag was searched incident to arrest. 2 additional clear plastic baggies containing white crystalline substances, a metal spoon with residue, 11 hypodermic syringes, and a glass pipe with burnt residue were located. The female received jail medical clearance and was transported to the Vanderburgh County Confinement Center where she was booked and processed for the listed charges. The white crystalline substances field tested positive for methamphetamine and produced a combined field weight of 2.4 grams. The aforementioned items were placed into labelled evidence bags and deposited at EPD Headquarters.		PAPE, N. A.

Reported: 10/29/2023. Officers were dispatched to 2505 Sunburst Blvd Apt. 258 in reference to a family dispute. The caller stated the offender and victim got into an argument and the victim possibly had a busted lip. Upon arriving on scene, the caller told Officers the offender was walking toward his car, had a bottle of alcohol on him, and was intoxicated. Officers made contact with the offender next to his vehicle. The offender had very slurred speech, began acting aggressive, and told Officers he was going to drive away in his car. The offender began yelling profanities loudly when he was told he would be arrested if he operated the vehicle. The Offender began taking off his jacket and posturing as if he wanted to fight with Officers. Officers instructed the offender to stop yelling and the offender continued to do so. Officers eventually were able to get the offender to step away from the vehicle and leave the area. Officers were able to make contact with the victim and discovered the extent of her injuries appeared greater than what was previously reported. Officers observed the victim had a swollen lip and blood around her teeth. The victim`s lower teeth appeared to have been knocked loose. The victim told Officers the offender entered the apartment intoxicated and began arguing with her about her dog, then punched her in the mouth. The victim said she tried to call someone to tell them what had happened when she discovered blood coming from her mouth. The victim told Officers the offender began threatening to kill her when she was on the phone and the threats caused fear. Officers located the offender returning to the apartment and placed him into custody. The offender was arrested and transported to VCCC. While at VCCC, the offender began beating on the glass in the holding cell and threatening to harm officers when he bonded out. The offender was arrested on the above charges.		HOSTERMAN, G.

Reported: 10/29/2023. I, Officer Frazier, was dispatched to the listed address for a motor vehicle accident with unknown injury. I arrived and learned that the driver of one of the vehicles left the area before exchanging the required information. A female (victim) was laying in the roadway being looked at by medical personnel. She was the passenger on vehicle 1 (motorcycle). Officer Harter stated the victim had lost consciousness and medical personnel at the hospital stated she could possibly have a brain bleed (no tests at the time of this report but due to bruising and swelling). The driver of the motorcycle was a white male with a black jacket and beard. He left the area and was not located at the time of this report. The victim was unsure of the offenders name. It is not clear if she didn't want to give his name, she really did not know it, or she could not remember due to her head injury. The witness stated vehicle 1 was facing westbound, on Columbia St, turning into the ER entrance (southbound). Vehicle 2 (involved other; driver) was traveling eastbound on Columbia St. Vehicle 1 (motorcycle) turned in front of vehicle 2. Vehicle 2 applied her brakes, but the road was wet (rain) and she could not stop in time. The collision happened causing damage to the front center of vehicle 2 and damage to vehicle 1. The male (offender) began walking away. The witness asked him if he was alright and thought he was walking into the emergency room. The witness turned his full attention to the victim and did not see where the offender went. Officer Trembczynski stated she saw, on security camera, the offender run off eastbound on foot. The involved other gave the same account that the witness did. She was shaken up and concerned for the victim. The involved other was escorted into the hospital and a state kit was completed. She was released after the state kit was complete. Officer VanFleet completed a reconstruction investigation. The motorcycle was towed to Tri State Tow yard to be held for "Hit and Run" investigators. Vehicle 2		FRAZIER, R. T.
