Roach further stated he knew before he could get his license reinstated that he needed to have the SR22 form, however he again stated that had elapsed. Officers requested Tri-State Towing to respond to tow the vehicle. Officers conducted an inventory and located a gray/white capsule which was identified a Schedule II narcotic underneath the driver seat on the floorboard in a clear container. The clear container did not show any proof of prescription for the found narcotics. Officers attempted to place Roach in handcuffs. Roach physically resisted by pulling his body away from officers. Officers used the necessary amount of force to effect the arrest. Once Roach was placed in handcuffs, all force ceased. Officers read the Miranda Rights Warning to Roach which he stated he understood. Roach admitted to knowing the gray/white capsule was inside the vehicle. Roach stated the capsule had been prescribed to him however he did not know the name of it. Officers were unable to prove Roach had been prescribed the suspected narcotic. No victims listed. Officers were dispatched to the listed address for a check welfare. Upon arrival, officers could hear an audible emergency alarm and observed a light identifying Apt 676 as the location of the alarm. Officers spoke with the reporter who said the resident inside is a wheelchair bound, elderly female. Additionally, the reporter said the apartments are equipped with medical emergency alarms that only sound when a string is pulled. These alarms are intended to alert others of a medical emergency inside the apartment. Officers attempted to make contact by knocking on the doors and windows of the apartment. After multiple failed attempts to make contact with the resident, officers forced entry into the apartment, in fear the resident was experiencing a medical emergency. Officers immediately made contact with the residents inside who stated there was not an emergency, and they did not hear the alarm. They also initially said they did not hear officers knocking, then later said they heard the knocking but thought it was a relative. Damage to the door was documented via bodyworn camera and officers contacted the property manager in order to fix the door. The resident was given a case number for her reference.		DUFF, J.
