LW 2322392 Found Property	Found Property (C), at 3500 N Harlan Ave, Evansville, IN, between 00:00, 11/14/2023 and 00:10, 11/14/2023. Reported: 11/14/2023. No victims listed. While working out in the jail, I observed a white pill container that had black tape on it, sitting on the desk in the workroom. The container had been there since I arrived at 2200 hrs on 11/14/23 and no one came to claim it. At 0000 hrs, I opened the container and found half of a circular pill, blue/green in color. I was unable to read the markings on it, therefore unable to identify the pill.	SEDORIS, S. C.
LW 2322391 Controlled Substance-Possession Schedule I, Ii, Iii, Iv, V	Society VICTIM of Controlled Substance- Possession Schedule I, Ii, Iii, Iv, V (C), at 1999 N Kentucky Ave/keck Ave, Evansville, IN, between 23:13, 11/13/2023 and 23:14, 11/13/2023. Reported: 11/14/2023. Officers were on patrol in a fully marked Evansville Police Department Squad car Southbound on Kentucky Ave. Officers observed a green Dodge Ram being operated with expired registration approaching Keck Ave. Officers initiated a traffic stop at Kentucky and Keck Ave. Officers were wearing a fully marked and approved Evansville Police Department uniform and approached the vehicle from the passenger side door. Officers identified themselves and requested the drivers DL and proof of insurance. The driver stated he had just received his "SR 22" but was unable to produce any proof. The driver identified himself as Donnie Roach. Roach stated his SR22 had elapsed. Officers returned to their squad car and checked the vehicle registration and drivers operators status through the BMV. The BMV showed Roach as Suspended- Prior and the registration plate returning to a maroon Ford F-150. Officers reapproached the driver and ordered him to exit the vehicle which he did so without incident. Roach stated he knew his license had been Suspended. Roach further stated he knew before he could get his license reinstated that he needed to have the SR22 form, however he again stated that had elapsed. Officers requested Tri-State Towing to respond to tow the vehicle. Officers conducted an inventory and located a gray/white capsule which was identified a Schedule II narcotic underneath the driver seat on the floorboard in a clear container. The clear container did not show any proof of prescription for the found narcotics. Officers attempted to place Roach in handcuffs. Roach physically resisted by pulling his body away from officers. Officers used the necessary amount of force to effect the arrest. Once Roach was placed in handcuffs, all force ceased. Officers read the Miranda Rights Warning to Roach which he stated he understood. Roach admitted to knowing the gray/white capsule was inside the vehicle. Roach stated the capsule had been prescribed to him however he did not know the name of it. Officers were unable to prove Roach had been prescribed the suspected narcotic. Roach was transported to the Vanderburgh County Confinement Center and booked on the above listed charges.	CARPENTER, B.

Reported: 11/14/2023. I, Officer J. Holden, was on routine patrol in a fully marked police SUV wearing full BDU uniform when I observed a white SUV traveling at a high rate of speed traveling East on the Lloyd Expressway near the Green River Rd exit. I observed the white SUV swerve between lanes, causing other vehicles to slam on their brakes to avoid colliding with the vehicle. I attempted to catch up to the SUV safely, and activated my lights/siren. I was traveling at approximately 81 mph and the white SUV was still pulling away from me. The driver of the SUV failed to use his turn signal to change lanes, began jerking the steering wheel back and forth aggressively, and then stopped as I got behind his vehicle in the left hand lane. I activated my siren/air horn several times behind the SUV. The driver then turned on his turn signals and began traveling East again, changing lanes from the left lane to the center lane almost striking a black vehicle, and then changed lanes again to the right lane. The driver of the SUV then stopped for a moment and then proceeded to pull into 5601 E Lloyd Expressway. The driver made very wide turns with his vehicle, and continued on in the parking lot before finally coming to a complete stop. The driver exited the vehicle when asked to do so and fell from the vehicle. The driver had to use his vehicle to lean against as he attempted to walk backwards towards officers. The driver had a difficult time following directions and was told several times what to do. The driver of the vehicle was placed into custody and immediately read his Miranda Rights, which he stated he understood. The driver of the vehicle had a strong smell of an alcoholic beverage coming from his breath. The driver told Officer Slaton that he had been at home drinking gin with his dog. The driver of the vehicle was asked if he would submit to some field sobriety tests, which he stated he would do. The driver was taken out of handcuffs and a series of tests were completed. The driver of the vehicle failed all three field sobriety tests. The driver was read implied consent by Officer Martin, which he stated he understood and stated he would submit to a chemical breath test. Officer Martin transported the driver of the SUV to the Vanderburgh County Confinement Center and preformed the certified breath test. The driver of the SUV was charged with operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated- endangerment, and operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated with a		HOLDEN, J.
