The victim stated the white female offender "flipped him off" and proceeded to leave the scene north on Green River Rd. The victim said he began following the suspect vehicle which eventually turn west into the Eastland Mall property from Green River Rd. The victim continued to follow the vehicle and this is when officers began getting a dispatch of two vehicles running into each other on the property. Before officers could arrive, the suspect vehicle ran off the roadway in the 4300-blk of E Virginia St. This location is just west of the Eastland Mall property. The victim stopped where the suspect vehicle was located. The offender fled the scene, failing to provide any information, and ran into Eastland Mall. Officers checked Eastland Mall for the offender, but discovered she had exited the mall, got into a vehicle and left the property. From a previous hit and run report that happened just prior to this incident, Officer Lowe provided a name and picture of the offender. Eastland Mall security video footage showed the offender and she was easily identified by her face tattoo. The victim was given the case number for his insurance. There was a hold put on the suspect vehicle for the Hit and Run unit.		HASTINGS, M. J.
