	Polster Dr without an operational plate light. A BMV return also revealed the license plate belonging to a red 2006 Dodge Ram truck. A traffic stop was initiated at the intersection of Polster Dr and Greencove Ave in marked patrol car 1907 and in full uniform. The operator, Matthew Lyon, informed on scene officers he did not have a valid drivers license at the time of the traffic stop. Matthew was asked to step out of the vehicle to speak with officers. On scene officers observed a green baggie containing a crystal like substance on the floor board of the vehicle next to the drivers seat. Through training and experience on scene officers believe the crystal like substance to be methamphetamines. Matthew and IO1 were taken into custody without incident. IO1 had minimal involvement and was later released in the investigation of the found narcotics in the vehicle. During incident to arrest, on scene officers located a clear plastic baggie in the front left pants leg of Matthew's sweat pants. While inventoring the vehicle officers also located a brown burnt piece of rolling paper containing a green leafy substance. The green baggie containing the crystal like substance later tested postive for methamphetamines with a field weight of .23 grams. The clear plastic baggie later tested postive for methamphetamines with a field weight of .71 grams. Lastly, the brown burnt piece of rolling paper containing the green leafy substance tested postive for marijuana with a field weight of .22 grams. A BMV return revealed that Matthew had never received a drivers license. Matthew could not provide on scene officers proof of car insurance at the time of the arrest as well. Matthew was transported to VCCC for booking and his vehicle was towed to Tri State Towing.
