Reported: 12/29/2023. On the listed date, the reporter called dispatch advising the offender was at her door attempting to make entry. The reporter stated the offender has never lived at her residence and she had only been briefly dating him. The reporter went on to advise she believed the offender was intoxicated and was making statements of wanting to complete suicide. Prior to officers arriving, the reporter told dispatch she could see her door handle turning as the offender was still attempting to make entry. I, Officer Hastings, arrived on scene and observed the offender standing at the reporter's front door. I called the offender away from the location and detained him. I could smell the strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from his person and found he was having a hard time maintaining his balance. I sat the offender down on the sidewalk and stated the Miranda Warnings to him which he stated he understood. I asked why he was at the house and he stated he had been in a relationship with the reporter for approximately four months, but recently the reporter stopped talking to him. The offender stated he was over at the residence attempting to make contact with the reporter and knew she was inside the home. When asked how much he had consumed of alcoholic beverages, the offender stated he probably had a bit too much. I transported the offender to the Vanderburgh Co Confinement Center without incident where he was housed on the listed charge.		HASTINGS, M. J.
