Alcoholic Beverage- Public Intoxication By Alcohol [bm]	On the listed date, the offender was harassing female patrons in the bar. One of the female patrons came and notified me, Officer Hastings, of the situation. I was working off-duty in full uniform at Bud's bar and grill. I went over and spoke with the offender and a friend of his. At that time, I asked them to move to another part of the bar and to stay away from the female patrons. At that time, I could smell the strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from their person. For the moment, the offender and his friend complied. As we were walking through the bar, the offender was staggering and at one time stumbled into an unknown subject who was standing at the bar. When I observed this, I feared the offender was too intoxicated to safely stay in the bar and it was best if he and his friend went home. I stopped the offender and advised him he would need to leave the bar. The offender quickly turned around and asked me if I was telling him to leave. I advised the offender that I was and began to escort him by walking him to the door. The offender turned again and yelled he wasn't going home and wasn't leaving. The offender began shoving me backwards while holding a beer bottle in his hand. I feared the offender was going to strike me with the bottle so at that time I used the necessary force to take the offender to the ground and secure him. When doing so, my head struck the corner of a counter which caused a contusion. I felt pain, but was still fighting with the offender on the floor of the bar. The witness and an additional security guard assisted in detaining the offender. Once detained, the additional listed witness and I walked the offender outside and sat him on the ground. I notified dispatch of the incident and called for an ambulance due to the offender complaining of pain to his ankle. At that time, I began to experience a worsening headache and did seek medical attention for the contusion to my head. Crime Scene was called to the hospital to photograph the injury. AMR transported the offender to the hospital where he was treated and released. Officer Stepro transported the offender to the Vanderburgh Co Confinement Center where he was housed on the listed charges.		HASTINGS, M. J.
