Theft	On the listed date and time, officer took a report over the phone for a theft. The reporter, Jarrod Lacer, says that he had several items stolen from his home this past weekend while he was gone. Lacer stated that he left home on Friday afternoon to go stay at a friends house which was the last time he saw the missing items. His roommate, James Gibbens was still at the residence and invited a female over for company. Gibbens informed Lacer that he was in the shower and left the female unattended. When Gibbens got out of the shower, she was gone. Gibbens called Lacer and asked if he could borrow money for cigarettes. Lacer told Gibbens to use the change in the change jar. Gibbens told Lacer the change jar was missing. Lacer returned home on Monday to find that other items were missing as well. Given the fact that the female was the only other person at the residence and the items weren't missing before she was there, it is believed by Lacer and Gibbens that she stole the items and left while Gibbens was in the shower. No contact has been made with the female from either Lacer or Gibbens since she left the residence. Lacer is the owner of all listed items. A case number was given to Lacer for the theft report.
