Reported: 01/23/2024. Officers were dispatched to a possible overdose at 1917 N Ruston Ave. Upon arrival officers spoke with the boyfriend who stated that he had just got home from the store and was having a conversation with the victim when he noticed that she was very lethargic. He asked if she had taken anything and she stated she took 4-5 Klonopin that she is prescribed. He stated that he went to go get some item from the kitchen and when he returned ten minutes later he found her slumped over at her desk in her room with purple lips. He called 911 and started CPR. EFD was first on scene and gave the victim narcan. She responded to the Narcan. She refused to go to the hospital with AMR. The victim and her son were left in the care of the victims mother.		GORE, S.
