He identified the offender, for both, as David Flax. Donte stated David was returning a room key to him when he got punched in the face by David. The punch caused Donte's nose to bleed. Donte didn't report the battery because he didn't want to get involved in anything. Donte left his room and secured the front door. Donte returned to his room, around 2000 hours, and noticed someone had gone through his things. He noticed the items missing and his neighbor mentioned something about three males coming to his room. One of the males was identified as David Flax. He was wanting to see the camera footage, but the owners of Arrowhead would not let him without a report. Donte was given a case number and advised how to press charges.
