LW 2404348	you walked up onto the driveway. I knocked and spoke with a juvenile in the home and just asked her to turn the music down, which she was kind enough to do. The juveniles father, victim Kaleb Macer, came home around 1150 and called for a harassment report. Kaleb stated that he had an ongoing problem with his neighbor, offender Carrie. Kaleb informed me that he had a protective order from Carrie due to her making multiple false reports to CPS, Animal Control, and 911 in the past. I found the protective order in NCIC (IN049045J) which protects Kaleb and his children from Carrie having any sort of contact with Kaleb including calling into 911 against Kaleb or his children. I called the phone number back from the initial noise complaint run and the voicemail stated "You have reached Carrie....." I left a voicemail for Carrie to return my call which she did not due at this time. I also tried to make contact with Carrie as her car was in the driveway and she did not come to the door. I left Carries doorstep to talk with Kaleb again and when I returned to Carrie I found that a curtain had been closed that I previously was shining my flashlight for to try and locate her, which told me someone was in the home. Kaleb was given a copy of the case number and advised to call the prosecutors office to continue with pressing charges. Based on the previous runs to this address it would appear that this is an ongoing issue.		DOCKERY, M. E.
