	and was placed in handcuffs (in the 600 block of E Missouri St). Robertson was placed in the backseat of our police cruiser. I read Robertson his Miranda Warning, he stated he understood, and he would be willing to speak with officers. He stated his child's mother, identified as McDaniel, has been harassing him and his friends. He told her that he had someone she could fight. He told her his current address (612 E Oregon) and told her to show up so she could fight Ising. McDaniel agreed to come fight Ising. He stated they had the conversation over the phone, but he did have several texts showing her intent to fight. Robertson allowed me to look at his phone. There were text messages that he told McDaniel the address and she was agreeing to come over and fight. McDaniel parked down the street from the address. He waved for her to come over and fight. Robertson saw Detective Blair's vehicle pull around the corner and the group went back inside the residence. He stated he ran because he does not get along with police and knew she would lie to try and get him in trouble. He gave up when he realized he did not have a reason to run away. Robertson claimed to have no knowledge of his active misdemeanor warrant. I asked Robertson about a firearm. He told me it looks like a real gun, but it is not a real gun. I asked him if he ever waved it in the air or pointed it at her. He told me he did not and it stayed in his pocket the whole time. He told me the gun would be in the house currently and he did not try to hide it. Officer A. Pitt spoke with McDaniel. Robertson and her have a child together. Robertson, prior to this altercation, has been arguing with McDaniel all day. He threatened to destroy some of her property. Robertson text McDaniel and told her he had some property that belonged to their child. He told her she needed to pick up the property from him. McDaniel and her friend, Joseph, showed up to get the property. Robertson was in the front yard waving a gun in the air. She drove by the address and he pointed the gun at her vehicle. She believed the gun to be real and she stated he has shot at her vehicle in the past. Officer Pitt spoke with Joseph. McDaniel and Joseph are roommates. She stated they were going to get property from Robertson. She stated he pointed the gun at their vehicle and she felt she was going to get shot. The gun was described as a black handgun. Officer Pitt spoke with the juvenile witness. He was hanging out with Robertson and Ising. Ising is his current girlfriend. He said Robertson was arguing with someone on the phone. He saw Detective Blair pull onto the street and told Ising and Robertson to go inside. He did not see a firearm in Robertson's hands. Officer Tevault spoke with Ising. She lives at 612 E Oregon with her mother. She was outside waiting to fight McDaniel when she heard someone yell run. She ran back in the house with the juvenile and Robertson. She did not see a gun during the altercation, but saw Robertson toss something on or under her bed. Officers made contact with Rettig. She is Ising's mother and the homeowner at 612 E Oregon St. We asked for consent to search her home for the firearm. She gave us consent and signed a consent form. She stood with Sgt Amuzie while Detective Blair and I searched the house. We located the firearm under Ising's bed. It was a black Beretta APX BB gun. We collected the gun and it was placed in EPD's evidence locker. Robertson was transported to VCCC and booked on the listed charges.

Reported: 05/16/2024. Officer VanFleet and I, Officer Frazier, were dispatched to the listed address for an unrelated run (24-09233). Officer VanFleet told me I needed to talk to Courtney Scales (victim). I initially assumed it had to do with the run we were on, but she told me she wished to report a different incident. She told me that Justin and David locked her in a bedroom and would not allow her to leave for roughly 3 days. She said David was a friend and she used to be in a relationship with Justin. She stated if she tried to leave they would beat her. She had bruises on her leg that she claimed were from them. I asked her what were the dates she was confined for. She said 3, 4, and 5 which I attempted to clarify as the 3rd-5th. The listed timeframe of 13th-15th makes more sense with the bruising on her legs. I asked how she was confined. She stated she was locked in David`s bedroom. I asked her if she was ever tied down and she said no. I asked her how she was able to exit the bedroom. She stated she unlocked the bedroom door and walked out the backdoor. She was given a case number and advised how to press charges. Officers made contact with Justin and David at 1015 N Main St (Phillips 66). Justin and David, during investigation for 24-09233, brought up the confinement allegations.
