The message asked about her filing charges on the offender and having a no contact order against him. This all stems from a previous incident where the victim filed charges against the offender for auto theft. She did not respond to the message. On 05/26/2024 at 2030, the victim received a direct text message from the offender. Again he was referring the the auto theft charges and if she was going to follow through. The victim replied that there was a no contact order. The offender denied knowledge of the no contact order. The victim did not continue the conversation with the offender. On todays date, the victim received another Facebook message from a subject named "Aleks Kawdin." A different variation of the prior name received through Facebook messenger. The offender once again was referring to her pressing charges against him for the auto theft and he mentioned a court subpoena. The victim did not reply to the message. The victim said during this time period she has also received numerous calls a day from different numbers. She believes it is the offender attempting to contact her, however she does not answer the calls.		HARRINGTON, M.
