Upon arrival officers spoke to the listed reporter, Diamond Webb.Webb stated that the listed IO, Karen Eberhard, arrived at the listed address for an oil change. Webb stated there was a verbal dispute over the pricing. Webb stated last time Eberhard came to this location she had a coupon so the services were cheaper than what they were today. Eberhard did not like this and became verbally aggressive with Webb. Webb stated Eberhard started calling her and other employees the "N" word. After hearing enough from Eberhard, Webb refused service to Eberhard. This made Eberhard even more angry. The employees pulled Eberhard's vehicle out of their service bay so Eberhard could leave. Once Eberhard was back to her vehicle she starting yelling something about her tires and Webb went to Eberhard to see what the issue was. Webb stated Eberhard continued to be verbally aggressive and the Eberhard tried to swing at Webb. Webb stated she was able to avoid being hit by Eberhard, so no physical contact was made. Webb stated Eberhard got into her vehicle and before she drove away she spit out of the window at her. Webb stated Eberhard's spit did not make contact with her.Webb stated Eberhard pulled into the lot directly to the south of them. Webb stated Eberhard was still yelling from that lot, but then eventually left.Writing this report Karen Eberhard called into dispatch and requested an officer to call her. I called Eberhard via her cell phone tx. Eberhard stated while she was at Valvoline she was asking questions about the pricing that she was given. Eberhard stated she was asking Webb for a break down of the pricing she was given because she did not understand why she was being charged more this time than she was last time. Eberhard stated Webb was being argumentative with her while she was trying to stay calm and understand what she was paying for. Eberhard stated she became angry when Webb would not answer pricing questions and then told her that they would not be servicing her vehicle. Eberhard stated at that point she did call Diamond a "fat son of a bitch". Eberhard then wanted to make it clear that she did not refer to anyone by there race, I did not ask Eberhard about any name calling, she stated she just wanted to make that clear without officers even bringing it up. |   | GIBSON, S.
