Battery- Bodily Injury - Misdemeanor	Officers were dispatched to 1000 Washington Ave in reference to a fight in progress. When officers arrived in the area there was no fight located at the original dispatched address. As officers canvassed the area, an officer was flagged down by the victim, Augusno Joseph, in the open parking lot south of the Old National Bank building at 961 Washington Ave.
	Joseph spoke very broken English, but had visible injuries to his head and face. Joseph had blood coming from the left side of his head around his ear, the right side of his face around his eye was discolored, and his shirt was ripped with blood stains on it. Joseph could not effectively communicate with officers to describe what had taken place. Several other associates of Joseph came up to officers to attempt to translate, but the most officers were able to understand was that Joseph wanted a report because someone was talking to his wife and an altercation broke out. Joseph said he knew who battered him, but he would not provide any names, he just kept saying he knew who it was. No further explanation was able to be gathered from Joseph.
	The witness, who was working security at a near by event that Joseph was attending was able to give officers a more accurate depiction of the altercation. The witness said he was outside the venue he was working, the complex on the southeast corner of the intersection of Washington Ave/Kentucky Ave, when he observed an altercation break out across the street in the parking lot south of Old National Bank. The witness said he could not identify who all was involved in the altercation, but that Joseph appeared to be struck in the head with a brick at some point. The witness said when he mentioned this around Joseph, he was told it was a bottle not a brick. The witness said he apprached the area where the atercation took place and was able to break up the fight. The witness said after the fight was broken up the involved parties left the area.
	Joseph denied medical attention and was provided with a case number.
