Reported: 09/17/2024. Officers were dispatched to the location of N First Ave and W Florida St for a person down. Officers were advised that a male subject was laying in the roadway possibly bleeding. Officers arrived and observed the male subject laying in the roadway in front of 708 W Florida St. The subjects dog was laying next to him in a guarding manner. Officers refrained from approaching the male due to not wanting to make the dog aggressive. Officers called out to the male in attempts to get him to respond. The male would not respond but officers could see that his eyes were open. After minutes of attempting to get the subject to respond officers began to approach the male at a closer distance. Officers could observe the male was intoxicated due to his slurred speech and lack of balance. The male began to stand up as officers continued talking to him. The male was basically wondering in the road in a confused manner. As one officer reached for the subjects hand, the subject pulled away. Another officer went up the steps to gain control of the subject and the subject then attempted to the kick the officer. The officer grabbed the subject`s foot as another officer grabbed the subject. The male continued to resist officers during this time. Officers were able to gain control of the subject and placed him into handcuffs. AMR arrived and assessed the subject due to him sustaining minor lacerations. AMR transported the male to Deaconess Midtown for jail clearence as the arresting officer followed.
