Reported: 09/27/2024. On the listed date, officers were dispatched to 2511 N Lafayette Ave in reference to a harassment report. The reporter stated that she had a protective order against her ex-boyfriend and that he had been sending her text messages. Upon arrival, officers met with the victim. The victim stated that she had recently gotten a protection order (Cause # 82D072409PO005205) against the offender. The victim stated that the offender has been messaging her daily and has been for about a month now. The victim stated that she blocks the number that the offender texts her from but that he is using a phone app that generates a new number to message her with. He has used over nine or ten different numbers. The victim stated that even though the offender isn`t messaging her from his official number, she knows that it is him because he mentions things in his messages that only the two of them would know about. The messages are intimate in nature and stated that he still loves her and he`s sorry for hurting her.		MURPHY, B.
LW 2418817 Public Order-Disorderly Conduct	Society VICTIM of Public Order- Disorderly Conduct (C), at 600 Mary St, Evansville, IN, between 23:40, 09/27/2024 and 23:49, 09/27/2024. Reported: 09/28/2024. While I was working off duty at Deaconess Hospital, I was called to assist with removing the patient in ER room 20. ER staff infomed me that the patient was discharged and was refusing to leave. After some discussion with the patient, I was able to get her to leave the hospital. Several minutes later the patient came back to the ER. She began to yell and threw her cell phone at the glass door. When I approached her I told her to stop as she began to run away. Since it was raining and I did not want to get wet, I did not chase her. Several minutes later the offender came back to the ER door. I placed her under arrest. She was taken to the jail for the listed charges.		AMUZIE, T. D.
