	Officers were dispatched for a report of a person down. When officers arrived they found the offender, slumped over on a ledge on the side walk. Officers approached the offender and called for her 5 times before she became alert. Officers could see an empty bottle of 99 Bananas in the grass next to the offender. Officers asked the offender what was going on. She stated that she was there to give blood and told officers about how her husband had died. During the story, Officers could smell the odor of alcohol coming from her breath and the offender was slurring her words with glossy eyes. Officers then asked the offender for an ID. The offender looked for the ID in her purse for a long period of time searching in the same spot several times. The offender did find the ID after looking in a side pocket that she had not checked. Officers ran the offender and found she had no warrants. Officers returned to the offender and asked her if she had been drinking. The offender stated " No, I have just had one". Officers asked where the 99 Bananas bottle had went and the offender pulled it out of her purse. The offender stated that she had only had half today and half yesterday. The offender continued to state that she was not drunk and that she was sleeping because she does not sleep because her husband died in January. She stated that she was depressed and Officers asked if she wanted to go to the hospital and she stated no. During Officers interaction, the offender could not stay on topic of the police interaction. Officers told her to quit drinking outside and to quit sleeping outside or she would go to jail. The offender was argumentative and claimed that she was not passed out. Officers asked if she wanted to take a PBT to show that she had only had one drink and was not intoxicated. The offender continued to state that she was not drunk to officers. Officers on scene stated that they saw this female slumped over around an hour ago when they had passed the area. Officers arrived to the scene with a PBT. The offender preformed the test to the best of her ability and the test showed a blood alcohol level of 0.071. Officers determined due to her state of intoxication that the offender should be arrested for public intoxication. When officers attempted to place the offender in to custody, she pulled away from

Reported: 10/21/2024. At approximately 1700 hrs., the VI and the WI (VI daughter) entered into the Walmart at 2500 N 1st Ave. Upon their entry the VI was approached by the OF. The OF told the VI that she was upset because the VI's daughter was passing around a video of the OF's daughter (IO) having sex with a 16 year old. The OF repeatedly told the VI that she was going to kick her ass then stated "Im going to come to your house and off you". The witness was in the area and heard the OF make the statement. The VI took that statement as a threat against her life. This is all over a video that is supposedly going around of the IO having sex with a 16 year old. The WI states that she was friends with the IO but have recently started having issues and they are not friends anymore. The VI and WI were able to leave the store without further incident.	HENDERSON, N.
