LW 2419358 Controlled Substance-Possession Schedule I, Ii, Iii, Iv, V	Once officers had determined that everyone in the house was safe. Officers stepped outside and while outside Officer Doane noticed that a vehicle was parked along the side of the road with a female inside recording first responders. Officer Doane recognized the female as the involved other 2. He stated that he had spoken to the involved other 2 and another female, later found to be the offender, about the involved other 1. They had claimed that involved other 1 had stolen Clonopin from them. He stated that the females were upset about officers not being able to arrest the involved other 1. Officer Doane approached the female and asked what she was doing. She stated that she was sitting in her car recording because she "thought her dog had been hit". Officer Doane then asked dispatch to call the phone number back. Officers observed the involved other 2's phone and it did not ring. Officers asked if the involved other 2 had another phone and she showed officers that she did not. Officers concluded there investigation with the involved other 2. Officers were able to search the phone number in RMS and found that the number came back to the offender. Officer Doane stated that the offender was involved in the run from yesterday. Officers then went to the listed address of the offender. Officers found the offender in her back yard on her phone talking to an unknown subject. The offender end the call once officers began speaking with her. The offender asked officers how the involved other 1 was doing. Officers asked if she had called and she stated that she did. At that time, dispatch called her phone again and she answered the phone. The call was ended after dispatch was advised that officers were on scene. The offender stated that she called because she had went to see the involved other 1. She stated that when she was over at the apartment, that the involved other 1 was slurring her words and crying. She stated that she had seen her 30- 45 minutes before she called 911 in that state. Officers informed her that no one in the apartment was over dosing and that the involved other 1 was sober. Officers placed the offender into custody at that time. Officers then spoke to involved other 1 again and asked her if the offender had came to her apartment. She stated that they had spoken. She stated that she had not been drinking at that time or today and stated that she had not taken any medication or drugs either. The involved other 1 again did not present any sign of being under the influence of alcohol or drugs. Officers then transported the offender to the Vanderburgh County Jail and booked her on the listed charge.		RODRIGUEZ, J.
