T.
LW 2422933	I, Officer Frazier, was dispatched to a battery report. I, during my investigation, determined it was a criminal mischief report. The involved other rents the home from victim. The involved other stated the offender came over to retrieve property the involved other borrowed. The offender was making offensive statements to the involved other's friend so he gave him his property then shut the door in his (offender) face. The storm door was already closed prior to the involved other shutting the front door. The storm door is a dual pane (glass) door. The offender punched the top portion of the door, shattering the glass. The offender left the scene after this happened. I, while on scene, saw the shattered glass and a few droplets of blood the offender left behind. The owner of the house (victim) lives next door in the house directly to the south. He has a camera in a tree facing the front door. I was able to watch footage of the offender on the front porch. The victim stated he wished to press charges. I gave him a case number and advised him how to follow up with the prosecutor's office. Rankin, Donna Schree (B F, 51) VICTIM of Theft (C), at 2130 N Seventh Ave, Evansville, IN, between 14:25, 11/24/2024 and 14:30, 11/24/2024. The victim requested officers meet her, first, at Corner Pocket Bar. Officers located the female at Corner Pocket. She stated she just got out of the hospital in Indianapolis. While she was in the hospital several of her clothing items had to be removed from an apartment she was moving from. The offender helped the victim by moving the clothing and putting it in her (offender's) storage unit. The victim was released from the hospital, purchased her own storage unit, and requested the offender allow her to take her own property and move it to her recently purchased storage unit (same location). The offender and victim got into a verbal disagreement and the offender is not allowing her to obtain her clothing items. The victim asked if officers would make contact with the offender in an attempt to get her property. Officers went to the listed address and attempted to make contact, but nobody answered the door. I left a message with the RING doorbell		FRAZIER, R. T.
