Reported: 11/01/2024. I was dispatched to timeout lounge for a domestic violence in progress. When Officers arrived on scene we were informed by the female that the male she was with was not the male that assaulted her. Officers were then about to leave the scene. Before leaving the male the female was with was sitting inside a van outside in the parking lot. Another male approached Officers and informed us that the male was sitting inside his vehicle and he did not give him permission to be in his vehicle. The male was then taken out of the vehicle and placed into handcuffs. The male was then escorted to my patrol vehicle, while escorting the male he began to pull away and refused to get into the vehicle. Officers were able to get the male into the vehicle, once inside the vehicle the male began to bang his head on the back window. A transport wagon was then called to transport the male. Once the wagon arrived the male continued to resist getting into the vehicle. Also while this occurred the male bit me on the right sleeve of my shirt. Force was then used and the male was secured into the transport wagon. The male also admitted to drinking several beers and shots, the male also continued to scream while on scene and was told to be quiet multiple times to which he did not. The male was then transported to St. Vincent and then transported to the Vanderburgh County Jail.		MORROW, R. S.
